

Arizona Author Book Festival

Book Signings

Story Time

Shopping!

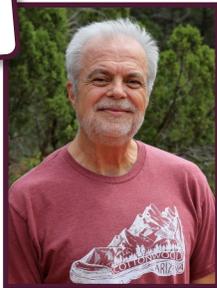

seeds
FOR AUTISM Fundraiser!

- What: A FREE family-friendly book festival for all ages!
- When: Sunday, May 3, 2026, 10:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m.
- Where: 215 E Grant St, Phoenix, AZ 85004
- Why: Build community, champion literacy, shop local, foster autism acceptance

Author Talks

Idris Goodwin is an award-winning neurodivergent storyteller for multiple generations. He'll discuss his novel, King of the Neuro Verse, and other books.

Roger Naylor is an award-winning author, Arizona Tourism Hall of Fame inductee and voice of the Verde Canyon Railroad. He'll help us celebrate the Route 66 centennial with fascinating history and stories of the iconic road .

- ✓ Free valet parking
- ✓ First 1,000 kids receive a FREE book.
- ✓ First 500 adults get a FREE tote bag.
- ✓ 40 Arizona authors signing books and chatting with festival goers.
- ✓ Fiction, Nonfiction, Art, Poetry, Memoir, YA, Sci-Fi, Fantasy, Romance and Children's.
- ✓ Children's Corner: story time with Medieval Times queen, king and knights; free make-and-take activities.
- ✓ Photo ops with storybook characters.
- ✓ Shopping! Books, festival gifts, reading/writing merchandise, SEEDs handcrafted items.

Writing on the Spectrum

Books by, for and about autism and neurodiversity.

Give-Aways!

Food & Live Music

The Writer's Scene

Writing groups, publishers, editors and others that serve the writing community.

WWW.AZAUTHORBOOKFESTIVAL.COM

